From Worm To Wearer

Is a Feature of the New "Oblong"
Muffler For Gentlemen.

We mean by this you get all the "real" silk in this muffler that's coming to you. No superfluous middlemen concerned in its weaving or making. The colors and designs, too, are just as desirable as the shape. Even the "ivory" whites have a warmish, caressing, refined look. The grays, the blacks, the darkish reds, in fact all shades are here for the gentlemen of refined taste.

Christmas Ties Are Here in Plenty Also

Every shape for the "men who know." It is surprising as well as gratifying to us to note the growth of this department. Reasons? Well, just a little less profit—or a trifle more value than exclusive men's stores—to get you to

MR. J. E. DOUTHIT GOES TO HUNTSVILLE

Mr. J. E. Douthit will go to Huntsville as assistant financial agent of the penitentiary there, under Financial Agent John Wright.

Mr. Douthit for a long time has been with the Ezell Grocery company, in the capacity of buyer and active manager. He has been a resident of Palestine for the past twelve years, and is regarded as a splendid business man. His appointment meets the general approval of the people here, though it is with regret they see him removed from Palestine.

For the present Mr. Douthit's family will remain in Palestine, but he will immediately assume the duties of his office.

A GREAT RULER GONE.

Death Has Bereaved Sweden, Its Venerable Monarch Passing Away.

Stockholm, Dec. 8.—Oscar II, king of Sweden, died at 9:10 o'clock this morning. The death of the venerable monarch occurred in the royal apartment of the palace, where, surrounded by the members of his family, the aged Queen Sophia and the Crown Prince, Oscar Gustav, and high ministers of state, the inevitable end had been awaited, while outside the palace great crowds stood with bowed heads and tearful eyes long after the announcement came of the death of their well-loved sovereign.

The whole country is bowed with grief, for King Oscar was something more than a ruler of his people and had endeared himself to them as an intimate and personal friend. When the flag on the palace was dipped to half mast there was a moan of anguish from the assembled multitude and many of them cried: "Oh, dear, the dear old king is dead."

The following official bulletin was posted after the king's death:

"The strength of the king continued to decrease throughout the night and the state of unconsciousness became more marked. His majesty passed away quietly at 9:10 a. m."

The death certificate was worded as follows: "We declare upon oath that His Majesty, King Oscar II, expired peacefully at 9:10 o'clock this morning in the castle at Stockholm at the age of 78 years, 9 months and 7 days, as the result of calcification of the cerebral and cardiac blood vessels."

"BERG,
"EDGREN,
"FLENSBERG."

The succession to the throne of Sweden now passes to Oscar Gustav Adolph, Duke of Vermland, the oldest son of the late king. At a meeting of the council of state this afternoon the new king took the oath of allegiance under the title of Gustav V., and adopted the motto, "With the people for the Fatherland."

The prince then took the oath of allegiance and the new monarch accepted the homage of the state officials.
